

WOMAN ARRESTED IN RUNYAN CASE TO AID POLICE

Mrs. Carter's Sister Will
Not Fight Return to New York.

Man Admits Advising
Giving Up of Teller.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Florence Woods, a sister of Mrs. Laura Carter, the woman charged with having appropriated at least part of the $25,000 still missing from the sum Chester E. Runyan stole from the Windsor Trust Company, has notified the New York police by telegraph that she is ready to come here from Chicago at once.

Arrested there yesterday, she protested that she knew nothing of her sister's relations with Runyan, and will not resist extradition if she is wanted here. Harry Kinstel, a telegraph operator to whom Mary Duncan, Mrs. Carter's negro maid, says she delivered a package for Mrs. Carter, denies that the bundle contained money. He admits that he lived with Mrs. Carter, left her to give her an opportunity to get as much of Runyan's money as possible, saw her deposit $5,000 in the Garfield deposit vault, advised her to give Runyan up when they learned he was a thief, and saw her take the $5,000 from the Garfield vault to return to the fugitive.

Runyan's lawyers are gathering testimony in support of his insanity defense. An investigation is also in progress to determine the identity of an elderly man whose picture, taken with Mrs. Carter, was found among her effects.

ECLIPSE OF SUN WILL OCCUR TODAY

There will be an eclipse of the sun today, but not within the vision of Washington. The eclipse is what is known as an annular eclipse, which means that the moon going between the earth and the sun hides the face of the sun from the earth, but not being large enough to obscure totally the sun it will leave a ring of light. The path of the eclipse will start in the Southern Pacific, go through the central part of South America and will end in the southern Atlantic. The path will be about 120 miles wide.

SEEKING GROUNDS FOR TRACTION FIGHT

NEW YORK, July 10.—To determine whether grounds exist for an attack by the State on the Ryan-Belmont Interborough Metropolitan Traction combination, members of the new public utilities board have been making a careful examination of Federal Judge Holt's opinion declaring the corporation a monopoly.

Though a monopoly, the members of the commission took the view that it is this point they desire to determine. Attorneys for the combine contend that the Northern Securities decision, which seems to have been used as a precedent, is inapplicable.

WOMAN PREDICTS DEATH, THEN DIES ON TIME

CINCINNATI, July 10.—Mrs. Julia Shaw, seventy-one years old, died suddenly at her home from heart trouble. Six months ago she arranged with an undertaker of Eastern avenue to buy her a coffin and prepare for her burial service. She expected to die about July 4.

Saturday, when a neighbor, overcome by the heat, died, Mrs. Shaw told relatives her time had come.

PITTSBURG TO COLUMBUS BY TROLLEY EXTENSION

WHEELING, W. Va., July 10.—Pittsburg, via Wheeling, to Columbus, Ohio, by trolley will be reality in a comparatively short time, according to an announcement made.

The Rapid Transit Company, a West Virginia corporation, which has as its head Albert Schenk, a millionaire meat packer, is back of the movement. The routes and the principal points touched by the line will be Pittsburg, Carnegie, Hickory, Wheeling, Bellaire, Bethesda, Barnesville, Cambridge, Zanesville, and Columbus.

GOING SOME.

The longest Presidential campaign in the history of the country began its saturnalia of hard cider and raccoon skins with the nomination of the elder Harrison at Harrisonburg in November, 1889. But the campaign of 1908 has already begun and will proceed without interruption until the eve of the election, nearly eighteen months hence—Philadelphia Record.
